We have a remedy that has a record of growing hair and curing baldness in 93 out of every 100 cases where used according to directions for a reasonable length of time. That may seem like a strong statement—it is, and we mean it to be, and no one should doubt it until they have put our claims to an actual test.

We are so certain Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will cure dandruff, prevent baldness, stimulate the scalp and hair roots, stop falling hair and grow new hair, that we personally give our positive guarantee to refund every penny paid us for it in every instance where it does not give entire satisfaction to the user.

Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is as pleasant to use as spring water. It is delightfully perfumed, and does not grease or gum the hair. Two sizes, 50 cents and $1.00. With our guarantee back of it, you certainly take no risk. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store. H. L. Perry.

Early But Busy.

A prominent politician said yesterday that there would be not less than ten candidates seeking the democratic nomination for Sheriff at the coming primary, which is almost two years off. Four have announced so far, and they have already begun to solicit votes. This race promises to be one of the most hotly contested in years.

ROYAL Baking Powder

Barnes Spoke.

At Nicholasville last week Rev. E. B. Barnes spoke to a crowded house in the afternoon of last court day on the subject of local option and delivered one of the most forceful addresses ever heard in Jessamine capital. Mr. Barnes is a gifted speaker and he brought out all the strong points in favor of local option in a plain and masterful manner. He pointed out to the people of Nicholasville the prosperous town of Richmond for an example against the liquor traffic, and showed where this town had gained in every way since saloons were abolished. The Nicholasville papers declare the Mr. Barnes talk made many votes for the temperance cause.

One Conductor Helped Back To Work.

Mr. Willard Adams is his name, and he writes: "I was confined to my bed with chronic rheumatism and used two bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy with good effect. The third put me on my feet and I resumed work as conductor on the Lexington, Ky. Street Railway. It will do all you claim in cases of rheumatism." Foley's Kidney Remedy allays rheumatism by eliminating the uric acid from the blood. Specially recommended for elderly people. Sold by Stockton & Son.

Two Dandies.

Hundreds of people who have taken advantage of the pretty weather of late to drive out the Lexington and Irvine pikes are loud in their praise of these roads since they were converted into modern pikes by Commissioner John Shearer and his able force, backed by Judge Shackelford and the Fiscal court. The Lexington pike is the finest in the state and the road from Richmond to Waco is equally as good. People residing along these roads who aided the county by subscribing to the pike fund, declare they would not kick even if they had put up $300 per mile instead of $100, now that they have such a fine road. There are three other roads leading out of the city, and first one to comply with the recent rule will be next to get the attention of the force of modern pike builders. The Barnes Mill and Taylor's fork road is now being put in excellent condition, the citizens along that route having been quick to subscribe as soon as they saw what had been done on the other roads.

The Sound Sleep of Good Health.

Can not be overestimated and any ailment that prevents it is a menace to health. J. L. Southern, Eau Claire, Wis., says: "I have been unable to sleep soundly nights, because of pains across my back and soreness of my kidneys. My appetite was very poor and my general condition was much run down. I have been taking Foley's Kidney Pills but a short time and now sleep as sound as a rock, my general condition is greatly improved, and I know that Foley's Kidney Pills have cured me." Good results always follow the use of Foley's Kidney Pills. They are a prompt corrective of urinary irregularities. Try them. Sold by Stockton & Son.

A wise prediction from the Winches Democrat is: "It is the field against McCrory in the Democratic Primary and O'Rear against the field in the Republican party and it will be McCrory against O'Rear in November. There will be a stirring campaign, a ratting finish and a good man elected Governor."

Let this be a lesson to Judge Reed not to be a cat-paw for the politicians, who seek nothing but destruction. Let him take off his coat now and get in the fight for the best Governor the state ever had. He saw the hand writing on the wall and acted wisely.

DEAR old Puritanism Danville is having more troubles with her pious people about closing the restaurants, cigar counters and soda fountains on Sunday, but it seems as if the more "up-to-date" element have administered defeat to the band of fanatics crying for such laws.

LET'S SEE. Wasn't it Floyd county that gave such big majority for Beckham in the famous Senatorial primary? There are only about 200 Democrats in the county, but Beckham carried it by something like 800. Right in John Mayo's country, too.

THE Grand old Governor, Simon Buckner, was eighty-eight last Saturday, and is still hale and hearty at his home in Hart county. He enjoys the distinction of being the only surviving Lieutenant General of the Civil War.

If the war cloud doesn't hurry up and "burst" the news will be a dead one for sure, for the base ball season is on, and the correspondents at the front will have their matter pushed to the back pages.

ACCORDING to the Louisville papers the Seelbach hotel gets all the trade from the rural districts of the state. "Stopping at the Seelbach" seems to be stereotyped for the personal and political clowns of Louisville papers.

THE millinery styles this year show that the creators of such are still candidates for the asylum. One is undoubtedly an African chief model, but we forget the name.

Who said Tom Johnson wasn't a game man? The whole country would mourn his loss, but he seems to be on the road to recovery, and here's hoping he'll pull through.

IF JAMES REED had remained in the race until after that Hopkinsville speech and reception tendered Senator Mc "he would have been more feverish to withdraw than before."

FLYING IN DREAMS.

A Sensation Like That Which Sometimes Presses Down Upon the Consciousness of a Child, is the sensation of flying in the dreams of childhood. It seems to become less frequent after middle age. Beunias states that in his case it ceased at the age of fifty. It is sometimes the last sensation at the moment of death.

To rise, to fall, to glide away has often been the last conscious sensation recalled by those who seemed to be dead, but have afterward been brought back to life. Piron has noted this sensation at the moment of death in a number of cases, usually accompanied by a sense of well being. The cases he describes were mostly tuberculous and included individuals of both sexes and with athletic as well as religious beliefs.

In all the last sensation to which expression was given was one of flying, of moving upward. In some cases it was peaceful, in others painful. In one case a girl died clasping the iron bars of the bed, in horror of being borne upward.

Piron associates this sensation with the similar sensation of rising and floating in dreams and with that of moving upward and resting on the air ecstatic state. In all these cases alike life is being concentrated in the brain and central organs, while the outlying districts of the body are becoming numb and dead.

Dream flight, it is necessary to note, is not usually the sustained flight of a bird or an insect, and the dreamer rarely or never imagines that he is borne high into the air. Hutchinson states that of all those who have been asked about the matter hardly one has ever known himself to make any high flights in his dreams. One almost always flies low, with a skimming manner, slightly, but only slightly, above the heads of pedestrians.

Beunias--from his own experience--describes a typical kind of dream flight as a series of light bounds at one or two yards above the earth, each bound clearing from ten to twenty yards, the dream being accompanied by a delicious sensation of ease and movement as well as a lively satisfaction at being able to solve the problem of aerial locomotion by virtue of superior organization alone.

Lafayette Hearn somewhat similarly describes in his "Shadowings" a typical and frequent dream of his own as a series of bounds in long parabolic curves, rising to a height of some twenty-five feet and always accompanied by the sense that a new power had been revealed, which for the future would be a permanent possession.--Atlantic.

Won His Wager.

Mrs. Somerville, the great mathematician and scientific writer, had to a great extent the power of concentration and became so absorbed in her task as to be unconscious of what was going on around her. Dr. Somerville told Harriet Martineau that he once laid a wager with a friend that he would abuse Mrs. Somerville in a loud voice to her face and she would take no notice, and he did so. Sitting next to her, he confided to his friend the most injurious things--that she was a slut, that she was a wretch and other such nonsense, uttered in a very loud voice. Her daughters were in a room of leather, while the mother sat placidly writing. At last her husband made a dead pause after her name, on which she looked up with an innocent "Did you speak to me?"

Earthquakes Bad Progress.

Japan has a great number of waterfalls which would be of material value in the development of the country, but the reason these valuable sources of power are not being developed is because of the danger of earthquakes which is constantly confronting the people. More than once within recent years have steps been taken with a view of constructing dams in order that these falls might be utilized when some demonstration of the earth has given warning of the danger of such a step and the promoters have been forced to abandon or greatly modify the proposed improvement.--New York Press.

His Own Regret.

"There's no use trying to deny it," remarked Mrs. DeFlatt, "this is the worst cook we've had yet. There positively isn't a decent thing to eat on the table."

A Judicial Reproof.

A justice once reproved a would be suicide thus: "Young man, you have been found guilty of attempting to drown yourself in the river. Only consider what your feelings would have been had you succeeded."--Green Bag.

Wise Retailing.

Reginald--Darling, I see by the papers that a food expert says that it is possible for a family to live on $4-a-week. Do you think it possible?

Reginald--No, dearest, but I'll be a sister to you!--Cleveland Leader.

One Man's Theory.

"No, I don't think women will ever succeed as railroad engineers."

"Why not?"

"They would lose too much time holding up their trains at crossing."--Boston Transcript.

It is not what we take up, but what we give up, that makes us rich.--Beech er.

Big Business.

For several weeks a St. Louis manufacturing concern has had a force of salesmen in Madison county offering a range to the farmers, and they have disposed of many. The people never seem to think that the same class of goods can be purchased at home for less money and at the same time they are sending thousands of dollars out of the county, that very little, if any, will remain here. These people pay no taxes to Madison county nor a license to offer their goods for sale. Some people think if they can buy on credit it is easy sailing, when the price they pay always includes a good sized interest on the money that the firm is "floating."

Catarrh is Surely a Dangerous Disease.

Thousands of people allow catarrh to slowly undermine the whole system until a serious disease develops--sometimes consumption.

People who have catarrh should use every effort to get rid of it, but should above all adopt a sensible method.

Stomach dosing, sprays and douches won't cure catarrh because it is a germ disease, and the germs must be destroyed before the disease can be conquered.

HYOMEI is the most sensible cure for catarrh because it reaches every fold, crevice and nook in the mucous membrane and gets where the germs are. You breathe HYOMEI and as it passes over the inflamed membrane its soothing influence heals the soreness and destroys the germs.

A complete HYOMEI outfit costs $1.00. This consists of a bottle of HYOMEI and a hard rubber inhaler. Pour a few drops of HYOMEI into the inhaler and breathe it a few minutes each day, that's all you have to do. It is guaranteed by R. L. Middleton, and druggists everywhere to cure catarrh, coughs and sore throat or money back. Extra bottle of HYOMEI costs 50 cents.

Quite Funny.

Brown & White, of Clay county, shipped a crop of tobacco to the Richmond Warehouse last week sold to D. P. Black. A man named Green helped to cultivate the crop. How's that for bringing all kinds of colors and shades into the business. Mr. Black said the names brought good luck, for he disposed of the crop to the American Tobacco Company at a handsome profit.

County Court.

In the county court business was somewhat on the stand still account of the wretched day. Two wills were offered for probate, B. M. Stagner who gives his farm of 190 acres to his widow Annie K. Stagner and other property and names a cousin Jason Stagner as advisor of his infant heir, B. M. Stagner Jr. His widow is named as executrix. The will of Mrs. M. E. King, gives to her husband all of her personal property and names Edgar Turley as executor.

Miss Clay Busy.

Miss Laura Clay, who is well known will be a volunteer committe (invited) by Governor Wilson, for the purpose of investigating the conditions of working women in Kentucky in industrial establishments and to prepare a report to be submitted for the consideration of the next assembly, with such recommendations as to legislation and control by the State government as they shall deem best for the good of working women in Kentucky.

Why Is It?

The attention of the Climax has been called to a very disagreeable state of affairs on Lancaster Avenue between Main street and Brock Avenue. Some time ago concrete pavements were put down by property owners after being ordered by the city, and the residents claim that the trash, accumulating from the work has never been removed by the city; but by clogging the gutters and presents an unsightly appearance. If the city is guilty of allowing this to remain, there is probability of a suit and the Climax hopes it will be adjusted at once.

Prominent Elk.

Hon. J. A. Sullivan, has been apprised of the death of his good friend Judge Robert, which occurred several days ago at Rochester, N. Y. Judge Robert was one of the leading Elks of the county and served with Mr. Sullivan a few years ago on the committee appointed from the Grand Lodge of the United States to form the constitution and by-laws of this great fraternal order. Judge Robert was a close friend of the Richmond attorney and had planned a visit here within a few weeks. He had just completed a canvass for re-election to a high office within the gift of the Grand Lodge and intended to come to Kentucky to recuperate.

William Wagers shipped 105 hogs to the Cincinnati markets last week brought at about 86. He claims the market is demoralizing local trade and the commission houses have notified local buyers to buy low for future delivery as there is liable to come a big slump. Benton & Evans also shipped a load to Cincinnati purchased at special price. Just now the live stock market is exceedingly slow with very little prospects for a good upward turn.

Farm News

Items of Interest to the Farmer, the Grower and the Stockman.

A 4-horse power traction engine has been received at J. B. Haggins' Elmendorf farm in Fayette county to be used in plowing. It will pull about twenty plows arranged in a row. All the plowing at Elmendorf will be done with this engine.

Mat Cohen will have in his string this year Price Roe, a three-year-old bay stallion by Bourbon Price, out of a Chester Dure mare; Kentucky Choice, Edna Mae, Topsy Dare, Bourbon Star, Knight Queen and several others.

The rainy weather prevented a good horse show Monday. Horses owned in the city were present, but many from a distance failed to get in. Robt. Walker, who declares his horse Lord Rion, by Arion, is the greatest in the county, was present and also had his fine pony Cleo out. He is one of the handsomest ponies ever seen here and the season has been ruined.

As the result of a deal consummated last week Mr. Joseph Boggs, transfers his farm near this city to Simon Turpin and Mr. Turpin disposes of his newly acquired place near the L. and N. depot in the deal. A cash consideration is also named in the transfer. Mr. Boggs will remain on his farm until next January. There are 220 acres in the farm and the price was not given out, but is said to be a good one.

The miserable day and a slump in the live stock market was keenly felt at the Richmond Stock yards Monday and the markets were dull. There were about 850 cattle on the market, says Manager Entry averaging from 5 to 7 cents. About 300 stock hogs sold from 6 to 7 cents. Mules were few and only two or three sales were reported.

The March weather was disagreeable, but the ground remained in excellent condition for plowing and consequently the farmers are away ahead in this department. Very little oats have been sowed, but it will not injure the yield if it is put in within the next few days.

BEREA COLLEGE

Again the Beneficiary of a Handsome Gift from a Wealthy Philanthropist

A special from Chicago to the Climax says: Dr. D. K. Pearson, of Hinsdale, Ill., will celebrate his ninety-first birthday April 24 by the distribution of $200,000 to schools and religious organizations. This will make his total distributions of recent years nearly $5,000,000, most of which has been given to small colleges.

The gifts are termed by Dr. Pearson as "debts," and in most cases are fulfillments of his pledges to different bodies of certain sums, when they should have collected other stipulated amounts. The money to be given April 24 will be distributed as follows:

American Board of Foreign Missions, $100,000; Berea College, Kentucky, $100,000; Dean College, Nebraska, $25,000; Northland College, Wisconsin, $10,000; Highland College, Kansas, $10,000; McKendree College, Illinois, $10,000; other smaller gifts make a total of $300,000.

"I shall celebrate my birthday anniversary by getting out of debt," said Dr. Pearson. "A year ago I gave notice that I would be getting old by this time and a man of my age had no business being in debt. I shall lie down on April 24 out of debt for the first time in many years. I have had these outstanding pledges for many years and have worked them off as one after another of the institutions met their obligations."

While most of Dr. Pearson's gifts have been to smaller colleges, different institutions here have received more than $1,000,000 from the Hinsdale philanthropist. Among the chief beneficiaries of Dr. Pearson among the smaller schools has been the Berea College of Kentucky, which has received more than $400,000. In reviewing his gifts Thursday he said the one from which he had derived the most pleasure was the gift of $50,000 for a water works system for Berea.

The philanthropist was one of the early settlers of Chicago. The greater share of his wealth came from the increased value of extensive real estate holdings in this city. Twenty-five years ago he retired from business.

Local Firm Will Continue Valuable Agency.

H. L. Perry, of this city, has just closed a deal whereby he will continue to be agent for ZEMO--the well known remedy for Eczema, Dandruff, and all diseases of the skin and scalp.

The extraordinary leap that this clean liquid external treatment for skin affections has made into public favor in the last few years proves its wonderful curative properties and makes it indeed a valuable addition to the fine stock of remedial agents carried by the H. L. Perry Drug Co.

They have a limited supply of samples one of which will be given free to any skin sufferer who wishes to test the merit of the medicine. A booklet "How To Preserve The Skin," will also be given to those interested.

Big Business.

Catarrh is Surely a Dangerous Disease.

Thousands of people allow catarrh to slowly undermine the whole system until a serious disease develops--sometimes consumption.

People who have catarrh should use every effort to get rid of it, but should above all adopt a sensible method.

Stomach dosing, sprays and douches won't cure catarrh because it is a germ disease, and the germs must be destroyed before the disease can be conquered.

HYOMEI is the most sensible cure for catarrh because it reaches every fold, crevice and nook in the mucous membrane and gets where the germs are. You breathe HYOMEI and as it passes over the inflamed membrane its soothing influence heals the soreness and destroys the germs.

A complete HYOMEI outfit costs $1.00. This consists of a bottle of HYOMEI and a hard rubber inhaler. Pour a few drops of HYOMEI into the inhaler and breathe it a few minutes each day, that's all you have to do. It is guaranteed by R. L. Middleton, and druggists everywhere to cure catarrh, coughs and sore throat or money back. Extra bottle of HYOMEI costs 50 cents.

MYSTERY OF LIGHT

Some Luminosity So Intense the Eyes Cannot See It.

THE RIDDLE OF THE FIREFLY.

So Far It Has Baffled Science, but When It Is Solved, as It Eventually Will Be, We Shall Have Light Without Heat and the Perfect Lamp.

The scientist set down a small black box and impatiently pushed aside the powerful microscope and the delicate bolometer. "It is most discouraging," he muttered, "to have such a treasure before one's eyes and still be unable to grasp it."

I looked in the little box, surprised to find nothing but a few brilliant fireflies. The scientist began to explain the mystery of light.

"In that box is the most efficient illuminant known to man. The radiant output from one of those insects corresponds to nearly fifty watts a candle, while our very best artificial illuminant, the flaming arc lamp, gives only two or three watts to the candle.

The light from those insects, as recorded by the bolometer, radiates little if any heat, while the very best incandescent lamps waste more than 90 per cent of the electrical energy in useless heat. If I could read this secret of the little world and make a lamp after its pattern I could produce 324 candle power from the same current that gives sixteen candle power today. Some day the secret will be read."

The secret of all light (except the light from fireflies and their kin) is a substance raised to a temperature sufficient to set up waves in the surrounding ether, which, when falling upon the eye, produce the sensation we know as light. Light waves vary in length between one thirty-three-thousandth of an inch, the first being extreme red and the second extreme violet. Rays of white light have a length of one forty-five-thousandth of an inch. The sun is a great mass of white hot matter. It is the atmosphere that enables us to see light, and outside of our atmosphere it is absolute darkness, as dark as the interior of Mammoth cave. In an arc lamp it is the white hot particles of carbon floating between the two electrodes that produce light. In the incandescent lamp it is the hairpin filament inside the glass globe that, when heated by electricity, gives off light waves. In gas and oil lamps light is produced by the heated particles of carbon in the flame above the wick or mantle.

The eye can stand without flinching a brilliance of about five candle power to the square inch of surface. The ordinary candle flame gives only two or three candle power to the square inch, while the sun at zenith gives 600,000. The arc light radiates to sunlight, with 10,000 candle power an inch, and the best tungsten filament incandescent gives 1,000 candle power. This means that if the sun could be changed into a ball of tungsten it would throw off only 1,000 candle power of light from every square inch of its surface, when the world would be practically dark and we should freeze to death in a week.

The prism shows that white light is composed of a happy blend of all colors of the spectrum. The sun gives us only pure white light, with rays of blue, green, yellow, orange and red. Gas mantles give greenish light, open flame yellow light and kerosene orange light.

By the laws of evolution the human eye has become accustomed to white light, or sky light, coming obliquely from above, and our eyes resent light coming from any other source. Snow blindness, distress from white sand or water, is the result of violating this rule. The upper eyelid is adapted to shade the eye from a strong light from above. The lower lid cannot perform this office, so when a strong light is reflected up into the eyes it blinds us.

The X ray has proved beyond doubt that there are light rays which move so fast that human eyes to register. This light penetrates bone, wood, paper and even human flesh. With the fluoroscope to assist our eyes we can see the bones in our arm without cutting to remove coat or shirt. But a man with X ray eyes would be sadly handicapped in this world, for he could see nothing but solids, such as curbs and metals, and would be unable to see a board fence or a bridge. Beyond doubt there is light so bright that the eyes cannot see it, and to us all is darkness beyond what our eyes will register.

Light rays themselves are invisible. When they move through the ether alone our eyes cannot see them, consequently all is total darkness. But when they meet with the resistance of air, water, glass, or any other substance, they register on the retina and—behold, we can see! As the atmosphere thins rapidly as we go upward, so in proportion the air resistance diminishes, and consequently the heat of the sun seems to grow less. This explains why the tops of high mountains are always covered with snow.

Many wonderful discoveries have been recorded in the illuminating field of late, and it is safe to say that this branch of science affords one of the greatest fields for research and invention. Each year our artificial light plants are improved, but they are far from being perfect. Not until the secret of the firefly is read and light is produced without heat will our evening lamps be perfect.—Chicago Record Herald.

When a medicine must be given to young children it should be pleasant to take. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is made from licorice, and the roots used in its preparation give it a flavor similar to maple syrup, making it pleasant to take. It has no sugar, and is a safe and wholesome cough remedy for children and the feeblest of adults.

High Compliment

Paid to Prof. Bridges, the New Supt. of City Schools, to Succeed Supt. Coates.

The Trigg County Record, published at Cadiz, has the following: Prof. D. W. Bridges, formerly of this city, and son-in-law of Mrs. M. H. Jace, of this city, has just been elected to the superintendency of the City Schools of Richmond, Ky. There are 1,700 pupils in the school, with a force of twenty-eight teachers. For several years past Mr. Bridges has been at the head of the schools at Lancaster, Ky., and could have remained there, but accepts the position at Richmond for the reason that it is a better position in that the salary is better and the field of work is broader.

In speaking of the matter, the Lancaster Record says Prof. Bridges this very high compliment: It is with sincere regret that the Record learns that we are to lose Professor D. W. Bridges as the Principal of our Graded School.

Professor Bridges has been appointed Principal of the High School at Richmond, Ky. He has tendered his resignation to the local Board of Trustees, which has been accepted, as they do not wish to lose the services of one of the best educators ever in Lancaster.

Prof. Bridges, we think we can say without fear of contradiction, is one of the best educators ever in Lancaster. He has done more to elevate and improve the Lancaster Graded School than any other man who has ever been at the helm.

It will be a hard matter to secure a man who will fill his place in an acceptable manner, and with such general satisfaction as he has given.

He was popular alike with the trustees, the faculty, the children, the patrons and the public.

While we regret to lose him from Lancaster, yet we take great pleasure in commending both Professor Bridges and his estimable wife to the people of Richmond.

Visit Elder's millinery department and see the beautiful spring styles at such reasonable prices.

Installation.

The officers chosen several weeks ago by the Richmond Lodge of Elks to serve during the ensuing year, will be officially installed next Friday evening. A large attendance is hoped for, as it is one of the most important meetings of the year. R. B. Terrill will retire as Exalted Ruler and be succeeded by William S. Ojalum.

Minor.

A telegram received here last week announced the death of A. B. Minor, of Boyle county, father of Mrs. S. O. Griggs, of Doyleville, whose husband is postmaster at that place. Mrs. David Brooks, of Ford, is also a daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Griggs and Mrs. Brooks attended the funeral Saturday. Mr. Minor died as the result of a gunshot wound.

Levied.

Deputy Sheriff "Trim" Deatherage never lets a delinquent taxpayer get loose from him without levying on some article of value that will satisfy the tax debt. Charles Stone, of color, who has been indebted for some time to the county for poll tax, arrived in Richmond last Saturday evening with a gallon jug of Winchester "hoose." Sheriff Deatherage nabbed him and levied on the whiskey and Stone "came across" with $1.00, the amount of the tax. Of course the officer could not have disposed of it fully in this city, but rather than lose his "piece of the corn" he paid up and was happy.

Will Celebrate.

Uncle George Deatherage and his wife, one of the oldest and most respected of the colored population of Richmond, will celebrate the thirty-fifth anniversary of their wedding on next Saturday evening at their home on East Main street. They have issued many invitations and their friends are preparing to give them a big time.

To the West.

Mr. Jay Ballard left this week for Torrington, Wyoming, where he will make his future home. His mother has been in that state for some time. Mr. Ballard will go to the community where Richard Colyer resides and will leave a big ranch. He will have a very tiresome trip from Richmond, as he will make the entire distance in the car with his live stock that he is taking with him.

Opera House. Miss Marie Harding, the charming soprano and Earl & Reed, the champion singers and dancers, will be at the opera house tonight. Manager Baxter will close the opera hall next week, with the exception of Thursday evening, when a one night stand show is billed. The cause for the closing is to give a force of paper hangers and fresco artists a chance to make some needed improvements.

Fiscal Court. The Fiscal Court is holding its regular semi-annual meeting this week and a large volume of business will be disposed of. Salaries for county officers will be allowed at this session and the levy for county purposes will be made. It is likely that there will be no change in the levy, excepting for the school fund. Supt. John Noland claims he fell short last year, in spite of the fact that economical methods were used and has asked the court to give him a little more money this time.

Look Out.

Hunters throughout the county should remember that the law in Kentucky governing the killing of wild duck, snipe, wild geese and other aquatic birds, went into effect on April 1st, and a heavy fine is liable to those who violate it. Game Warden Bailey claims that there has been violations, which he thinks is chiefly due to ignorance, but as ignorance is no excuse with the law, there is liable to be several nimrods given a stiff fine.

Land Deals.

Ellis Yates district for $500; S. L. Williams to Bertha Simpson, about 2 acres in Glade district for $275; Master Commissioner to Harvey Chealand, 150 acres in Union district, for $7,800; G. L. Foley, etc., to Abraham White, 3 acres in Glade for $24.

In Bunches.

The spring term of the Normal school opened yesterday with a rush, and the dormitories are crowded for room and many pupils are boarding in the city. Every train arriving since last Saturday has brought from ten to fifteen young ladies and gentlemen with eager desire to obtain sufficient knowledge to enable them to teach in the rural schools of the state and otherwise fit themselves for the more strenuous duties of life. Secretary is the President, Mr. Culbertson, has been exceedingly busy the past few days, arranging the details for receiving the pupils, and seeing that they get settled and ready for work. Every county in the eastern district is largely represented.

BUSY WEEK

For Congregation of First Presbyterian Church--Will Entertain Presbytery.

The congregation of the First Presbyterian church, of Richmond, are looking forward to a week of much interest beginning next Sunday. The annual meeting of Transylvania Presbytery is to be held in this city, the first time in twenty-five years, and Rev. D. H. Scanlon, the pastor, has, with the assistance of members of the congregation, arranged a very elaborate program.

Thirty clergymen will be present and will be heard on several occasions. About seventy-five are expected. Rev. Henry Sweets, of Louisville, will open the meeting with a sermon next Sabbath morning on "The Christian Ministry." He will also occupy the pulpit at the evening service. A feature of the morning service promises to be the singing of Mrs. E. George Payne, formerly of this city, who is a vocalist of rare ability. With her husband, Mr. George Payne, they will give an entertainment at the Normal chapel on next Saturday evening.

Composers in Eastern Kentucky compose the Presbytery and some of the leading ministers of the state are members. Rev. E. M. Green, of Danville, is Stated Clerk, and Rev. A. S. Moffett, of Lebanon, is Permanent Clerk. Rev. H. F. Williams, of Nashville is a prominent out-of-the-state clergy who will be heard on "Missions in the Orient" with illustrated lectures of the work in Korea and Japan.

At Ford.

In a fight at Ford last Saturday evening Everett Taylor, son of Ex-Deputy Sheriff James Taylor, of Madison, shot and seriously wounded Tom Hukle, Young Taylor was released on bond after being arraigned before Judge Evans at Winchester.

Brought Back.

Sheriff Dave McCord returned from Oklahoma last Friday, where he went after Luther Pearson, who was wanted by the officials here upon an ugly charge. He was found at Durant, in the extreme Southern part and consigned to return with the officer without requisition papers. Pearson had been working in a saw mill located in Durant.

Gentry.

News has been received here of the death of Henry B. Gentry, which occurred at his home in Dayton, Ohio, last Friday. He was 75 years of age. Deceased was a nephew of the late Nathan Gentry, of this county. The Climax is in receipt of a communication from Dayton, Ohio, telling of Mr. Gentry's death, but giving no name and very little data. N. B. Gentry, formerly of Madison, now of Louisville, is a cousin.

Near Death.

J. B. Walker can thank his stars that he is alive for he came near being a dead man Monday morning as one could be and live. Mr. Walker went to the barn with a small colored boy to milk and while there a loud clap of thunder was followed almost immediately by a flash of lightning. A huge tree in the yard of Mr. Neil Bennett, adjoining, was hit and the bolt followed an electric wire into the barn just above where Mr. Walker was standing. He was knocked unconscious and the colored boy was also so stunned he was unable to call assistance for several minutes. Members of the household rushed out and Mr. Walker was carried to the house, where in a few minutes he regained consciousness, and a physician was sent for. He is able to get about and is feeling no ill effects, but declares it was the closest call he ever had.

Dog Snaw.

Madison county owners of fine dogs, of all breeds, are interested in the coming dog show, which will be held in Lexington beginning next Tuesday and continuing four days. A beautiful silver cup, valued at $50, is now on exhibition in the window of T. J. McMorley, which will be given to the finest looking dog entered from Madison county, regardless of breed or pedigree and a number of owners have already entered. There promises to be intense friendly rivalry among the local owners for this choice prize.

Woods Spoke

Ex Mayor C. E. Woods and Rev. Father Beeler a noted Catholic Priest of Cincinnati, spoke to a big crowd in Fair month last Monday on the local option question. Mr. Woods is besieged by requests from all over the country, where there is a fight against the open saloon, to speak.

Firm Changes. The firm of Turpin & Todd, contractors, has dissolved partnership by mutual consent. Judge Turpin, of the firm, has associated himself with Jeff Stone and will continue the business, and Mr. Todd will go in for himself. All are well known and will get a good share of the public patronage.

Free Lecture.

Rev. E. B. Barnes will lecture at the Christian Church to-night beginning at 7:30 O'clock on "Erasmus," who was one of the greatest men that ever lived. He was famous as a scholar and theologian and the founder of the scientific method of investigation. He deserves to be remembered by every generation and a large number should come out this evening.

New One.

Mr. D. B. McKinney, formerly in the livery business here, has purchased the grocery store of Tate & Son, on Main street, and will continue the business. He is well known and the new firm should be a prosperous one. Mr. Cecil Traynor, as head clerk for the old firm, will remain with Mr. McKinney. Mr. Tate and his son, Mr. Elmer Tate, who have composed the firm have not decided just what they will do.

After Lewis.

President Herrington of the Base Ball Club has likely closed a deal with "Conny" Lewis, the well known Manager, to take the local club this year and make a winning team. Mr. Herrington has been wintering in Jacksonville, Fla., and a contract is expected to be closed either to-day or to-morrow, as Lewis has signified his desire to come here.

Reunion Rates.

The L. and N. has announced special low rates to Little Rock, Ark., to the annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans Association, which meets in that city May 15 to 18 inclusive. Round trip tickets on sale May 13th, 14th with privilege of extension of return limit to June 14th upon payment of 50 cents. The fare from this city is $12.65. It is likely that a goodly number of the "vets" from this section will attend.

Close Call.

Mr. E. T. Burman came very near seriously injuring himself one day last week at his home on Lancaster Avenue, while in the act of descending the steps leading to the cellar. His foot caught in a piece of cloth that had carelessly been thrown on the steps--he momentum of his body caused him to pitch forward heavily to the concrete floor. He was painfully bruised and for two days could hardly get about the house. He says it was a narrow escape.

Dog Snaw.

Madison county owners of fine dogs, of all breeds, are interested in the coming dog show, which will be held in Lexington beginning next Tuesday and continuing four days. A beautiful silver cup, valued at $50, is now on exhibition in the window of T. J. McMorley, which will be given to the finest looking dog entered from Madison county, regardless of breed or pedigree and a number of owners have already entered. There promises to be intense friendly rivalry among the local owners for this choice prize.

April 20th

Is Day for Through Trains from Louisville to Beattyville Via L. & A. and Highlands.

According to reports from Frankfort the through trains will begin operations between Beattyville and Louisville via Richmond, Nicholasville, Versailles and Frankfort not later than April 20th, unless some unfavorable weather should delay track ballasting. The connecting link, which is known as the Kentucky Highlands Railroad, between Versailles and Frankfort, is expected to be completed by the above date and this fifteen miles of road will connect the L. & A. at Versailles with the L. & N. Frankfort, thus making a through road from Beattyville to Louisville, a distance of 170 miles.

This will mean much to Richmond, as it should put an evening train from Louisville here not later than 6:30 and also a later train, so those who wish to spend the day in the Falls City could have about eight hours between the arrival and departure of trains. Superintendent Pates, of the L. & A., says there is nothing to give out at present, but he is optimistic as to the outlook for Richmond on account of the completion of the new road, and feels as if he will be able to give out some news of much interest, locally, within a short time. As it is now, to reach Louisville, passengers from this city must go a roundabout way and spend about two hours more on the road than necessary.

Jailed Here.

Lewis West, James Wallace and Thomas Scruggs were brought here from Pulaski county last week by Deputy Marshals Oolman and Holsback charged violating the internal revenue laws. They were placed under the care of Jail-ones to await the Federal court here the middle of this month.

New Church.

For The Christain Congregation is Now Assured. Liberal Gifts.

The Congregation of the Richmond Christian church is certain of a handsome new building to worship in, for in about thirty minutes nearly twenty thousand dollars was raised by volunteer gifts last Sunday immediately following the morning services. Amounts running from $1000. down to $100. were liberally subscribed when Rev. E. B. Barnes, the pastor called for subscriptions. Some of the wealthiest members of the church were absent, but it was given out this morning that with such a liberal start, the congregation would be able to erect an edifice to cost about $40,000 with but little sacrifice on the part of the membership.

During the pastorate of Dr. McLeellan, two or three years ago, an effort was made to arouse enough interest among the members to take the matter up at once, but for many reasons it was abandoned.

Considering the wealth of this community, Richmond should have modern churches and it is hoped that the example set out by the members of the Christian church, will be taken up at once by the other congregations and several beautiful new churches go up within the next three or four years that can be pointed to with great pride by the people, not only of Richmond, but of Madison county.

Prominent laymen of the church counted over ten thousand from absent members who will subscribe at the proper time, but are now debating the amount they will give. Committees will be appointed at once and the matter pushed with all possible force.

Court Docket.

The April term of the Court of Appeals will begin next Monday, the 10th, and the members of the local bar and the court house officials have received the docket. Madison, as usual, has very few cases, only three being on the docket for this term. Two are civil cases and one appealed by the Commonwealth. They are Bennett, etc., vs. Bennett, etc.; Bates, etc., vs. Harris etc. and Commonwealth vs. Eliza Broadbush. The latter case is quite out of the ordinary. Broadbush is a negro and he was accused of stealing coal from the L. & N. railroad. The evidence showed that he confiscated only a few small pieces, and Judge Benton refused to permit a penitentiary sentence. The statute sets out that stealing from a railroad as a felony, but the big heart of the Judge could hardly see Elzie go to the "pen" for such a small offense, but it may be that the higher court will overrule and be strict to the letter with the law.

White Hall.

The disagreeable weather for the last few days has detained the farmers in their work.

The young chickens don't seem to like the cold weather very much from the way they have dying of late.

Mrs. Amanda Nealey is able to be out again after a severe spell of sickness.

Last Sunday was Bro. Martin's regular appointment at Mt. Pleasant but the day was so disagreeable his audience was small.

The Mt. Pleasant Sunday-school seems to have taken on new life and we do hope that it will continue to grow and do great good in the future.

Berea Suffers.

The little town of Berea suffered its most disastrous fire last week, which broke out at an early hour Wednesday morning and caused damages to the amount of about $10,000 with partial insurance. The blaze started in a livery stable owned by Berea college on Main street and when discovered was beyond control. The volunteer bucket brigade made a great fight to prevent the spreading of the flames and, with the assistance of nearly every citizen of the town, succeeded in saving much property that at first seemed doomed. F. O. Clark, a volunteer fireman, made a rush in the livery stable to save horses and came very near losing his life in the flames. He was kicked by one of the maddened animals and was so shocked that his comrades, at a great risk, were compelled to go in after him. It was a narrow escape. He was almost overcome when reached.

Hot Election.

Richmond and Madison counties were almost as much interested in the election at Winchester last week for city offices as the Clarke county towns here. Woodson McCord, who defeated James H. Boone, for Chief of Police, is related to many in this county as well as H. B. Scrivener, who was chosen councilman in the First Ward.

There is More to Paint

than the color. When you paint don't just select the shade and let it go at that. Make sure also that you are using paint that will wear, continue to look well, hold its color long, stay on the job and give good honest service. It takes paint like the brands we sell to give service like this.

HINDU FUNERAL PYRES.

Describing the burning of their dead by the Hindus of India at Benares. Price Collier in Scribner's Magazine says:

I have been present at these burnings. The bodies are brought in on a frail litter. A pile of logs is built up, held in place by four iron stanchions. The body, with the head uncovered, is placed on the logs, more logs are piled on top, the litter is broken up and added to the small braziers underneath and the fire lighted. There are various ceremonies connected with the rite. The body is carried several times around the pile before being placed upon it. The nearest relatives walk around the pile with a jar of water, letting it drip down as he goes till of sudden he dashes the jar to the ground, breaking it to pieces—a symbol of life, everywhere. At a certain moment, too, the skull is fractured by the nearest relative to allow the easy escape of the spirit to another world. Where the deceased is rich the fire is made of costly and sweet smelling wood, sandalwood and the like, and the ceremonies are more elaborate and more prolonged. No doubt it is the ideal way to dispose of a dead body, but when I have seen it done here it seemed to me a callous and a careless rite.

I have noticed all over India the absolute indifference of the natives themselves to the pain and deformities and maladies that are displayed as an excuse for alms. It is not the stoicism of our western Indians, who thought it dishonorable to show fear or shrink from pain, but an imbedded indifference, a numbness to this particular infliction.

HER NEW GOWN.

It Was Comfortable Even if It Didn't Hang Just Right.

Miss Amanda Jones, who possesses the artistic temperament in a very high degree, is as careless as a lily of dress as to her attire. Not long ago, being away from home and far from the watchful eyes of her family, she selected and purchased an evening gown for herself and wore it on several occasions with great comfort and satisfaction. Shortly after her return to her home she was invited to a reception and decided that it would be a good opportunity to wear her self-selected gown. Accordingly she put it on and presented herself complacently for family inspection.

"What is the matter with your dress?" asked her sister, eyeing her critically. "It looks like a piece of old rag," said Miss Jones, with an air of chagrin.

"But it doesn't fit," exclaimed the sister, still examining the garment tentatively. "Is that the way you've always worn it?" was the next question, uttered in a despairing tone. "Yes, of course. How else could I wear it?" was the response. "And it is so comfortable, with plenty of room in the back for my shoulder blades. And, then, I like a gown to fasten in front. Why, what's the matter?" as her sister covered her face with her hands and sat down abruptly. "Do you see anything wrong with it?" "No, no, no," said her sister, shaking her head. "Only, you know, you've been wearing it kind part before," New York Press.

Who Owns the Falkland Islands? Few people are aware to this day that the Falkland Islands are situated in all Argentine maps and geographical as "unlawfully retained by Great Britain." The origin of the dispute was that England, after abandoning the islands in 1774 resumed possession in 1820. The Argentine government protested, and as A. Stuart Pennington points out in his book on the country, is even today "careful to do nothing which could even apparently recognize the rights of the present possessors." It was for that reason that it declined a proposal for a reason ago to run a line of Argentine ships to the islands.

Midnight Conversation. Yeast—I read today that glowworms are much more brilliant when a storm is coming than at other times. Crismonbeak—Indeed! Do you know where I can get a glowworm? "What for?" "I must go home to my wife now, and I'd like to know if a storm is about to break!"—Yonkers Statesman

Like All Mankind. He—Darling, all I possess I lay at your feet. She—You are just like all the men—you insist on putting things where a woman will have to pick them up after you. But—I'll say yes, John—Judge's Library.

Our Varying Moods. "How now?" "You never see a man coming out of church with his hat perched on the side of his head."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Meditation. Meditation is the great cornerstone of our spiritual dynamics, where divine energies lie hid for any enterprise and the hero is strengthened for his field. All great things are born of silence.—Martineau.

Work That Tells. The Kind Richmond Readers Appreciate.

Cures that last are cures that tell. To thoroughly know the virtues of a medicine you must investigate the cures and see if they prove permanent. Doan's Kidney Pills stands this test, and plenty of proof exists right here in this locality. People who testified years ago to relief from backache, kidney and urinary disorders, now declare that relief was permanent and the cure perfect. Can any Richmond sufferer longer doubt the evidence? Samuel T. Greene, Holt street, Mt. Sterling, Ky., says: "I can corroborate the public statement I gave in May 1903 in praise of Doan's Kidney Pills. I cannot express how much good Doan's Kidney Pills did me. In fact, I doubt if I would be alive were it not for them. You may continue to use my name and say that I recommend Doan's Kidney Pills highly."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster Milburn, C. B. Hays, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

TUBULAR BELL CHIME

The Herschede Hall Clock as a timepiece, a tubular chime, and an article of furniture for home, office, or institution, appeals alike to utility, refinement, and musical taste. The perfect movement insures correctness of time; the solid oak or mahogany case, with classic lines, conforms to good taste; and the melodious tubular chimes, sounding the hours and quarters after the peals of Whittington or Westminster, serve as a pleasing reminder of the passing hour. The fifty styles give ample choice in design, size, and price, all showing the moon's phases in the dial arch. We are sales agents for The Herschede Hall Clock Co. of this city, and will send illustrated catalog on request.
